Tree New Mexico Announces: 10,000 Tree Give-away to the Public

Albuquerque, NM - Tree New Mexico is partnering with the City of Albuquerque Parks and Recreation Department to increase the tree canopy in residential areas of the city. Trees that will save you money by reducing your energy costs, increase your property value, and clean the environment! All tree species come from the City of Albuquerque's approved plant list. Trees species are a compilation of native, low water-use, and large shade tree species. No high water use trees will be used.
